

Crescent House by rail, road and air

Where is the EMA?

The EMA's address is:
Crescent House, 5 The Crescent
Surbiton, Surrey, KT6 4BN

How do I get there by train?

South West Trains run a direct main line service from London Waterloo (Northern, Bakerloo and Jubilee lines) with 10 trains an hour off-peak (see table), and more during rush hours. Journey time is from 16 minutes. Trains also run regularly from Clapham Junction (10 minutes) and Wimbledon (District line, 7 minutes). From Victoria change at Clapham Junction.

Wat	Surb	Wat	Surb
10.03	10.26	10.33	10.56
10.06	10.34	10.36	11.04
10.12	10.29	10.42	10.59
10.20	10.43	10.50	11.13
10.23	10.39	10.53	11.10

Crescent House is two minutes' walk from the station (see map above).

What about driving?

Surbiton is 5 minutes from the A3, south west of London, and 15 minutes from Junction 10 of the M25. We have limited off-road parking at Crescent House (please call if you need parking as we have very few spaces) or there is on-road metered parking. Additionally, you can park for two hours free in Waitrose carpark nearby.

How can I get there from the airport?

Crescent House is about half an hour's drive from Heathrow and about 40 minutes from Gatwick. Station Cars (020 8390 3030) charges £30-40 for a one-way trip. Kingston Cars (020 8481 0000) is also reliable although slightly more expensive. Please let us know if you would like help booking a car from either airport.

Where can I stay?

The Bosco (hotelbosco.co.uk) is very close to Crescent House, and rates for a double room range from £85 to £165. Slightly further away, the Holiday Inn (holidayinn.com) on the Portsmouth Road overlooks the river, with rates starting at £119.